MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society met in annual session in the Freemason Street Church of Christ, Norfolk, Va., October 12th, 1907, at 2 P. M. President T. W. Phillips presided. Prayer was offered by Bro. Chas. L. Loos, of Lexington, Ky. The chair appointed the following committees: Enrollment, J. A. Joyce and P. A. Cave; Nominations, W. H. Allen, C. L. Thurgood and J. A. Hopkins. The report of the Acting Board was presented by Geo. B. Ranshaw, and unanimously adopted as their report to the Convention.

G. W. Muckley read the report of the Board of Church Extension, and A. L. Orcutt, the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, both of which were adopted as "Our report to the convention."

W. J. Wright then presented a number of recommendations from the Acting Board, which were adopted, item by item, subject to the action of the Convention.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE ACTING BOARD TO THE GENERAL BOARD OF MANAGERS.

1. The Baptist conventions, and the conventions of the Churches of Christ, in Canada, have passed resolutions favoring co-operation, and looking toward the union of these two bodies in Western Canada. In several places the union has already been effected. Rejoicing in the splendid progress of this movement, and desiring to further it as rapidly as possible, and likewise considering the great importance of Western Canada as a mission field, we recommend an expenditure of not less than $10,000 in Western Canada, within the present missionary year, and, that if necessary, a man be appointed to make a special canvass of individuals in order to raise the money.

2. The present rented offices of our Society, in Cincinnati, are inadequate. We are liable to be asked to vacate at any time, since the Y. M. C. A. needs the room. If a fire should occur, all the records of this society, covering its entire history, would be wiped out. It is almost impossible to secure suitable offices for our work. Moreover, if secured, the rents are exorbitant. We, therefore, recommend that the Acting Board of Managers be instructed to take steps necessary to secure, either through purchase or erection, a suitable Mission Building in Cincinnati, Ohio.

3. We recommend that a committee of twenty-five (25) representative brethren be appointed by the President of the American Christian Missionary Society, and that this committee of twenty-five (25) shall consider fully all the questions involved in establishing a Board of Publication, making use, as they desire, of the facilities of the American Christian Missionary Society for conducting their inquiries. They shall report to the General Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society, at their next annual meeting.

4. We recommend the articulation of the American Christian Missionary Society and the Christian Missionary Societies, of the following states, territories and districts, as provided for in Article Nine (9) in the revised Constitution of the American Christian Missionary Society:

New England States,	Mississippi,	Wisconsin,	Washington,
Georgia,	Louisiana,	Minnesota,	Oregon,
Florida,	Arkansas,	The Dakotas,	South California,
Alabama,	Michigan,	Idaho,	Arizona,
E. Pennsylvania,	Nevada,	Wyoming,	Western Canada,
South Carolina,	New Mexico,	Utah,

We recommend that these articulations shall be effected at the earliest possible date. Likewise, a similar articulation with the mission boards of other states as rapidly as a mutually agreeable plan can be devised.

(c) Their regular funds shall be considered as portions of the funds of the American Christian Missionary Society, to be used within borders of their respective territories. Their regular funds shall be sent to the American Christian Missionary Society, and shall be paid out on the joint order of the President and Corresponding Secretary of the respective States, Territories and Provinces. Their permanent funds are to remain in the control of officers or other persons designated by the State, Territorial or Provincial Society, always provided that the custodians of such funds give suitable bond.

MOVED TO THE ARMORY.

Owing to a reception to be held by the ladies, at 5 o'clock, in the church, and that hour having arrived, on motion of Howard T. Cree the Board adjourned to the Armory to complete its work.

Report of Committee on "The Missionary Calendar," was presented by C. J. Tannar, chairman of the committee, and reads as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MISSIONARY CALENDAR.

The committee appointed by the convention, in Buffalo, to revise the Missionary Calendar, conducted an extensive correspondence with a view to ascertaining the opinions and wishes of the churches, preachers, and most stable friends and supporters of our various missionary, educational, and benevolent organizations. All the secretaries of the state missionary societies; our editors and college men; all the Living Link churches of the Foreign and Home societies; all the life directors of the various societies, of whom we could learn; and many representative persons in addition to the above named, were asked for a full and frank expression as to the necessity and character of changes in the calendar. After hearing from hundreds of the friends of all our organized interests, your committee prepared and sent out a tentative report, giving it as wide publicity as possible through our papers, missionary magazines and state conventions, and inviting expressions of opinion through correspondence.

At the final session of the committee, the following resolutions were prepared as representing the consensus of opinion as thus obtained:

(1) That a revision of our Missionary Calendar is necessary;

(2) That the Board of Ministerial Relief be merged into the National Benevolent Association;

(3) That the offerings of the American Christian Missionary Society, and the various state missionary organizations, be taken on the same day and the proceeds sent to the American Christian Missionary Society to be pro-rated; 50% of the net proceeds to be retained by the American Christian Missionary Society, and 50% to be returned to the State Society; and that in states where this plan might temporarily work injustice, this shall be righted by special appropriations from the American Christian Missionary Society. And be it further resolved, that each state society maintain its separate organization and administer its own affairs, each state secretary acting as Superintendent of American Missions, in his respective state.

(4) That the following Missionary Calendar be adopted in all the churches, Sunday-schools and other organizations:

January..... National Benevolence.
February, March.....Church Extension.
April, May, June..... Foreign Missions.

July..... Education.
August.....
September, October, November..... Home Missions.
December..... Christian Woman's Board of Missions.

(5) That so far as possible, the churches, Sunday-schools, and other organizations observe the calendar as outlined; and avoid the raising of special funds for any purpose, at times when it might interfere with the highest success of days, designated by the brotherhood at large, as sacred for the objects named.

(6) That this calendar shall take effect January 1, 1908.

Respectfully submitted,

C. J. TANNAR, Chairman,
S. H. BARTLETT,
GEO. W. MUCKLEY,
GEO. B. RANSHAW.

August 1, 1907.

After considerable discussion pro and con, and numerous resolutions and substitutes, a motion to continue the committee for a year, with instruction to further consider the matter and report at the next annual meeting of the Board, prevailed, and the committee was so continued, T. A. Abbott being appointed vice W. R. Warren.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned.

P. A. CAVE, Secretary.

FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

HAVING obtained help from the Lord, whose we are and whom we serve, we, the Acting Board of Managers, have endeavored to carry out with all fidelity, the instructions given us by the Convention in Buffalo, one year ago, when you laid upon us the burden of directing our Home Mission work for the year ending September 30th, 1907.

With both humility and thanksgiving, we present to you our Fifty-Seventh Annual Report. The year, while not yielding all that we had hoped, prayed and labored to bring to pass, is a good one for the Society; hence we are not wholly ashamed to render an account of our stewardship.

After a year of strenuous labor, the Corresponding Secretary and his assistants look back upon a twelvemonth of joyful service which has for its cap-sheaf and glory the most substantial achievements in the history of the Society. The financial receipts indicate that the work of Home Missions has taken firmer hold upon the hearts of the people than ever before. No large gifts from bequests or individuals have disproportionately swelled the amount of our receipts. The people en masse have supported the work by their gifts through the churches. This is a hopeful indication, insuring permanence to the work and promising increase for the future. But if the financial returns are so full of encouragement, what shall we say of the work in the field?

We have expended during the year in actual work in the field more than $14,000 in excess of any previous year. We have employed 45 more missionaries than last year. We have organized eight more churches than last year. The secretaries have come into personal touch with every portion of the continental field more closely than in any previous year.

The relations between the Missionary State Boards and the National Board are upon a more satisfactory basis than ever before. The Missionary States were never so efficiently organized, so splendidly led and so effective in their operations. Home Missionary literature was never more welcome in the churches, and our brethren of the ministry were never more gracious and loyal in the support of the secretaries and the great cause which they represent.

Possibly no year of the Society's work has made more strenuous demands upon the services of the secretarial force. In order to meet the requirements of increased office responsibilities, and to carry out the plans for closer co-ordination with the various State auxiliaries, it has been necessary to confine the work of visitation very largely to the State conventions and the larger churches in strategic centers.

Our money receipts for the year are $123,597.15, as against $103,647.34 in our best former year, 1906. This is in round numbers, a gain of $200,000, or 20 per cent. for the year.

We present here a

OUR FINANCIAL RECORD.

Upon the retirement of Bro. B. L. Smith from the Corresponding Secretaryship, a firm of expert public accountants was employed to audit the accounts of this society for the six preceding years. This was laboriously and faithfully done. It is much to the credit of the society that its records were so complete as to permit an absolutely full auditing for the whole period.

The report of this firm was to the effect that the accounts of the society had been perfectly kept, that the books balanced for the whole period, and that so far as the records show, the funds had been administered with absolute fidelity. They suggested some changes in the method of book-keeping which they found in vogue. These were adopted and a new set of books opened.

Since then some two years have passed. The present Corresponding Secretary insists on a public accountant examining the books annually. Such an audit has just been completed down to October 1st, the beginning of the present missionary year. Their sworn statement as to the condition of our books and account is presented herewith:

We desire to call attention to the enviable financial record of this society. Our permanent funds amount to $59,803, and our annuity funds at present amount to $105,770 more, a total of $165,573, which must be safely and profitably invested in order to enable us to pay the necessary interest. The amount of these funds increases annually, thus increasing the risk and responsibility of investment.

IN THE FIFTEEN YEARS DURING WHICH WE HAVE BEEN BUILDING UP A PERMANENT FUND, NOT ONE DOLLAR EITHER OF PRINCIPAL OR INTEREST HAS BEEN LOST. AND THE SOCIETY HAS NOT PAID ONE DOLLAR AS A COMMISSION FOR HAVING ITS FUNDS INVESTED. THE RISK HAS BEEN BORNE AND THE WORK DONE WITHOUT MONEY AND WITHOUT PRICE BY YOUR ACTING BOARD OR A COMMITTEE OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

WILL your school be in line for Children's Day for Home Missions. If you don't celebrate take an offering anyhow. Line up with the procession.

CONCERNING RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE CONVENTION IN BUFFALO, N. Y.

The Committee on Recommendation in Buffalo presented important propositions which were passed unanimously by the Convention.

FIRST—

The first was, "that the Acting Board give immediate and favorable consideration to the appeals of our brethren in the Canadian Northwest." At the first meeting of the Acting Board following the Buffalo Convention the Board appropriated $1,200 with which to begin work in that important field. This money was to guarantee the salary of a general evangelist, who was to spy out the land, hold occasional meetings, organize congregations, and locate ministers. Additional appropriations were made to several other points in Western Canada. The general evangelist and others in Western Canada, as well as the Corresponding Secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society, have traveled over most of the lines of railroad in Western Canada during the year, and have familiarized themselves with existing conditions. The territory is a vast one, being twenty-two times the size of the State of Ohio. It is rapidly settling up with people from the United States, Europe and Asia. The same conditions obtain as did in the United States west of the Mississippi River fifty years ago. All the opportunities which presented themselves for religious work in our own land are present in Western Canada. Our men are intent upon planting Churches of Christ wherever possible, and the number of such places probably runs into the thousands. Our chief difficulty is to obtain workers of the right kind for this vast field. Our brethren appear to shrink from pioneer fields, and to prefer remaining where we are strong. If we can secure the right men for Western Canada, our Board will be glad to join the people of Canada in providing for their support. We look upon this as a field of extraordinary possibilities and promise.

SECOND—

The second was, "that the Acting Board agree to the support of a Living Link Evangelist for the State of Mississippi," granting the necessary increase from our treasury to insure securing a good man. The Board has faithfully carried out this recommendation. The Living Link Evangelist, M. F. Harmon, has been employed for a number of months, and is doing admirable work, which is presented elsewhere in this report.

THIRD—

The third related to the support of Bro. C. S. Osterhus among the Scandinavian peoples, and looks toward a larger work in the evangelization of all foreign peoples within the territory of this Society. The Board voted an appropriation of $1,000 to enable Bro. C. S. Osterhus to begin his work among the Scandinavians. Brother Osterhus has been doing heroic work in this field ever since we began his support. He reports as follows concerning it:

"During these twelve months past I have been earnestly and urgently at work in my special field among the Dano-Norwegians of America. My work has been mainly in three divisions.

"During the year I have carried on a correspondence with our people all over the United States and Canada, and in several foreign countries. I have written at least about four thousand personal letters during the year, or on the average something like three hundred and fifty per month. Some of these have been quite lengthy, from three to eight thousand words or over, being in some cases treaties on some important theme at issue among our people, and among the leading preachers of this free and independent people.

"By the grace of God, we were enabled to start the publication of our paper, "Bible-Vennen," "Bible Friend." It is an eight page paper, size 11x15, the eight pages containing a total of about 16,000 words per copy. We have published it regularly every two weeks these eight months, and have in this time printed and distributed a total of 22,800 copies, of which I have written one-half or two-thirds. It has met with good success in most every way, for which we are very thankful to God. We are beginning through it to wield quite an extensive and blessed influence among our people.

"Through the influence of our publication, as well as our many personal letters and circulars, God enabled us to create enough interest among our people for the New Testament Plea, to receive invitations for the holding of three large general conventions among our people, one in Minnesota, one in Wisconsin, and one in Iowa pending. These conferences were quite largely attended, especially the one in Wisconsin. We had three large audiences every day, three sessions a day for four days, and a very blessed convention. Day sessions were used for discussions of practical problems bearing on Christian unity, and the New Testament Plea in general. The evenings and Lord's Day sessions were used for general evangelistic meetings. Souls were converted, beautiful and impressive baptismal services held at each convention, and a great uplift experienced by all the Christians present. The three places from which we have received invitations during this year for these educational conferences are important, strategic points in this field where our work is taking deep root, and where it has every prospect of spreading and developing gloriously.

"Besides these conventions, which I have arranged, planned and conducted, I have also, during the year attended two very important conventions last May and June, among certain portions or factions or semi-organized bodies, operating in a free and independent way among these same people, with whom we are doing our work. These conferences also were of great value.

"The result of the work is very gratifying, in that several of these groups of either wholly or only partially organized groups of Disciples have commenced to consider seriously the question of fully conforming to the Bible pattern. Large numbers are beginning to understand the New Testament teaching, both as to baptism, church organization, and systematic work. A great hunger has been aroused with thousands of our people for a going forward on strictly New Testament principles. The prospect for a rich harvest for God and His kingdom is therefore in sight. The literature we have scattered, and the many sermons we have preached in the places visited, is seed sown in a good field. A good foundation for this work has been laid. The details of it all will be found in my monthly reports.

"Trusting in God to stand by us, guide us, lead us, bless us, we go forward with undaunted courage and cheerfulness, knowing that we are serving our great Master and King in a way that He pleases to accept and bless. I respectfully submit these few statements of our work, and beg to subscribe myself with gratefulness to you for all your love, kindness and help, and to remain,

Most faithfully your brother "in the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord" (I. Cor. 1-9). C. S. OSTERHUS."

The Acting Board believes that this work should be enlarged as rapidly as the funds of the Society will permit. It promises to be one of our most fruitful undertakings. We thank the Lord for the progress made in the past year.

FOURTH—

The fourth recommendation called upon the Acting Board "to raise a special fund for our brethren in California, who suffered so seriously by earthquake and fire." What has been done in this line has been set forth in the report of the San Francisco Reconstruction Commission, of which Bro. P. C. Macfarlane is Emergency Secretary. This report is as follows:

San Francisco Reconstruction.

"The Convention in Buffalo placed itself on record as favoring a determined effort to raise a fund of $100,000 with which to meet the conditions thrust upon our churches in San Francisco and vicinity by the great earthquake and fire of April, 1906. In December a joint appeal in behalf of San Francisco was made by the American Christian Missionary Society and the Board of Church Extension. Seventeen churches and a few individuals responded to this appeal with a total offering of $1,521.84. According to the terms of this appeal the expenses were first deducted and the balance divided equally between the Board of Church Extension and the American Christian Missionary Society—the fund of the latter being used for support of missionary pastors within the stricken district and the share of the Board of Church Extension, $675.13, going to the treasury of the California Reconstruction Commission for reconstruction work.

"The pitiful inadequacy of this response led the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society to determine upon a more vigorous effort to save our churches of San Francisco and environs from the twin disasters of calamity and neglect.

"July 7th was set apart as a day for an offering from the churches. P. C. Macfarlane was elected San Francisco Emergency Secretary, and Frank S. Ford, Robert Lord Cave and D. A. Russell, all California brethren, entered the field in its behalf. The results of the offering so far are in cash $13,954.53, with about $4,000 in unpaid pledges and delayed offerings, making a total of $17,000 or $18,000, a sum pitifully inadequate to meet the needs in a district in which churches are now being built—First San Francisco, Alameda, Oakland, So. Berkeley and Vallejo.

"The hopes of the San Francisco brethren at the present time are pinned to the generous proposition of Bro. R. A. Long, of Kansas City, Mo., making a conditional gift of $5,000, provided $5,000 more is raised in Kansas City, and $10,000 in St. Louis, and provided $2,500 more is raised in Missiouri outside of the two cities mentioned. It will be seen that this involves $25,000 for San Francisco in one lump. Bro. R. H. Stockton, of St. Louis, has brought this whole sum seemingly within reach by himself giving $5,000, or half the amount needed in his own city. The Emergency Secretary is now at work in Missouri, and expects to report at any time that the conditions have been met.

"What is needed to save the day for our work in San Francisco is four or five gifts of five thousand dollars each, and numerous gifts of a thousand or less. We also need offerings from thousands of churches which have not yet had part in this glorious work.

"Is it not a sad commentary on our vaunted unity that as yet less than one thousand churches have responded to this appeal? If your church can not take an offering make a unity and fellowship gift of some nominal sum. Stand and be counted. Many churches are going to take a thank offering for San Francisco Reconstruction on the Sunday before Thanksgiving, or at their Thanksgiving service. Perhaps your church can do likewise. P. C. MACFARLANE."

FIFTH—

The fifth recommendation was with view to making good some of the Centennial Aims of the American Christian Missionary Society. With that in view the Acting Board was authorized to employ, for three years, a Field Secretary, whose special work is the raising of funds for this Society. This Secretary has been secured in the person of Bro. H. A. Denton, formerly of Maryville, Mo. Brother Denton is well known to our brotherhood, his voice having been heard and his face having been seen from the platform of our National Conventions from year to year. He is present and will be seen and heard in behalf of his work, upon which he has entered with his well known heartiness and enthusiasm.

CHILDREN'S DAY FOR HOME MISSIONS.

In the systematic presentation of Home Missionary information, the Bible-school has been regarded as the most hopeful field. The Bible-school is the church in training. The Bible-school properly instructed means the church energized, and with her activities wisely and effectively directed.

In the modern Bible-school renaissance, so widely and deeply affecting the present and future interests of our organized missionary work, we have sought a place for the study of Home Missions and Home Missionary problems. In addition to suggested reading courses, we have carried on the unremitting "campaign" of Home Missionary education and inspiration in the endeavor to increase the number of supporting schools, and to raise at least $25,000 directly from the Bible-schools for our work.

The work has been measurably successful. Last year 908 schools contributed, this year 803, a loss of 105. The total receipts from the schools, however, were $10,904.85, a gain of $572.59 over the previous twelve months.

Children's Day for Home Missions should be of first importance in the calendar of the activities of every church. The Bible-school is the church, at study, and at work. There is no more reason why the special day for Home Missions should be ignored or neglected than the day for Foreign Missions, Easter Offerings, or the Christmas celebration.

Every State Board participates in the financial results from this day, the receipts being divided upon a 50 per cent. basis after deducting the necessary expense of the campaign. The receipts have been as follows:

1899	$ 875.77
1890	2,100.00
1891	2,392.97
1892	2,213.05
1893	3,550.45
1894	1,597.10
1895	334.62
1896	469.36
1897
1898	584.90
1899	1,325.66
1900	2,778.87
1901	3,674.54
1902	4,647,72
1903	6,897.13

1904	8,505.05
1905	8,201.11
1906	10,332.26
1907	10,904.85

ANNUITIES.

Better than a bequest is a gift of money on the Annuity Plan. A majority of the wills in which money is bequeathed to the American Christian Missionary Society are attacked and not a few broken by law. If the will is sustained we must pay the heavy expenses of the suit, and in some cases, wait many years before receiving the remainder.

To make certain that we get the money for the furtherance of the gospel, let us have it while you still live. If you need an income from it, we will cheerfully pay you an annuity. Your income is thus assured, and without labor or risk on your part.

We urge the preachers to point people of means to us, and to urge them to turn over their money to us while they are living. We have received nearly $200,000 on this plan, and have more than satisfied all of our annuitants by keeping our promises. Our list of new annuities for the year is small. It is as follows:

Mrs. Malvina Carolina Hall, Franklin, Ind	$1,500.00
Mrs. F. Blanche Hill, Portsmouth, N. H	500.00
Mrs. Jane L. Humphreys, Eureka Springs, Ark	400.00
"A Friend," Ohio	500.00
"A Friend," Pennsylvania	2,000.00
Chas. H. and M. E. Wood, Provo, Utah	2,000.00
W. A. Higgins' Memorial, Cleveland, Ohio	500.00
	$7,400.00

BEQUESTS.

The last thought of the dying Christian ought to be concerning the work of the Lord among men. An oft-recurring thought in his prime and prosperity should be, "How can I continue to work for Christ after my departure." To leave money for this purpose is among the best ways. It can be invested and the interest used to preach the gospel; or the principal may keep a man at work for years, and who can measure the influence of his work?

The Roman Catholics receive a vast amount annually in bequests. All Catholics possessed of property are directly approached by their priests and urged to "remember the church." We commend this example of the priests to our preachers. Brethren, we fall short of our duty when we neglect to impress upon the people of means the desirability of leaving an equitable portion of their estate to the Lord who bought them with His blood. With this matter wisely pressed upon them, within a short time hundreds of thousands of dollars per year will be paid into the treasuries of our missionary, benevolent and educational institutions.

We report the receipt of the following bequests for the year:

James T. Hall, Elizabethtown, Ind	$ 500.00
Mary Deveney, Philadelphia, Pa	190.00
Sinnickson Sparks, Concord, Nebr	200.00
Sarah H. Campbell, Teegarden, Ohio	27.00
Grandison Crawford, Oklahoma City, Okla	4,655.50
Total	$5,572.50

PERMANENT NAMED MEMORIAL FUNDS.

What monument so able to keep your name and good works in memory as a living institution founded by your money and wearing your name? Such an institution is a Permanent Named Memorial Fund of $5,000 and upwards in the American Christian Missionary Society.

The money is invested. The interest is used to support a missionary. The fund bears your name. The missionary is known as, for instance, "the missionary of the Francis M. Drake Memorial Fund." The churches organized by him are known as "the churches organized by the Francis M. Drake Memorial Fund," and the meetings conducted by the missionary are similarly designated.

A score of persons annually might well establish memorial funds at from $5,000 to $10,000 each, and thus erect a living, permanent, preaching memorial.

Our funds of this character at present are:

S. R. and Mary Ezzell, Lancaster, Tex.
Columbus A. Mee, Cleveland, Tenn.
Frances T. Mee, Cleveland, Tenn.
Francis M. Drake, Centerville, Ia.
Margaret Oliver, Pittsburg, Pa.
George Bates, Irvington, Nebr.
Dr. H. Gerould, Cleveland, O.
Lathrop Cooley, Cleveland, O.
A Friend of Home Missions.
John Reed, Worcester, Mass.
Nellie Eckert, Rockford, Ills.
"A Sister," Pennsylvania. (Name of fund to appear later.)
"A Brother," Utah. (Name of fund to appear later.)

Total in Permanent Named Memorial Funds, $59,000.

INDIVIDUALS SUPPORTING HOME MISSIONARIES.

The list is a brief one. It might well be a hundred-fold longer—so much unconsecrated wealth is there in the hands of our people. We need nothing more than a realization on the part of our prosperous and wealthy members that while "We can not serve God and Mammon, we can serve God with Mammon."

For the lack of money our work is at a standstill in some places; it moves at the speed of the glacier in others, while in other promising fields we dare not begin operations. Over against these conditions, we behold thousands of our brethren gratifying every desire possible by the expenditure of money on disappointing and worse than useless things. Our spirits are in travail until we see formed within them more of the spirit of "Him who though he was rich, yet for our sake became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich," and who teaches us that "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Here is our list—thank God it is twice as long as last year:

Charles Reign Scoville, Evangelist, Chicago.
Fred. Doeller and wife, Columbus, Ind.
Mrs. E. L. Ford, Detroit.
Miss Nell Ford, Detroit.
Thomas W. Phillips, New Castle, Pa.
J. F. Davis, Baldwin, Ga.
C. C. Chapman, Fullerton, Cal.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS A LIVING LINK FUND.

Formerly a contribution of three hundred dollars from an individual, church or Sunday-school, within a single missionary year, guaranteed the support of a Home Missionary for one year.

The Acting Board has found it necessary to increase that amount to five hundred dollars. The reasons for the change are these:

First. The former amount was too small. It did not make possible the support of a missionary in the average field selected by the churches.

Second. With the greatly increased cost of living, we find it necessary to offer our missionaries increased compensations. That necessarily applies to our Living Link Missionaries.

Third. Our missions are more and more being located in cities. The compensation offered in rural regions and villages does not suffice in cities.

Fourth. It was a too low standard to set for many of our churches and individuals; for reaching it and supporting a Home Missionary, they were disposed to stop far short of much larger things which are easy possibilities for them.

Fifth. It wrought some injustice to other churches and individuals who could not support Living Link Missionaries, for their smaller offerings had to be added to the gift of $300, in order to support the Living Link Missionary. Thus the smaller givers were helping to support a missionary whose full support was credited to another church or individual.

We urge all who gave $300 for the support of a missionary to aim throughout the year at reaching the higher standard of $500. If to attain it is impossible, come as near it as possible and continue to be a Living Link. Five hundred of our churches and a thousand individuals ought each to support a missionary in America.

WORK IN THE CITIES.

The vastness of our American cities, their almost unbelievable rate of growth, their growing importance as regards population, matters political, commercial, educational, and the absolute certainty that in the near future they will dominate our land, make them of first importance in the home mission enterprise.

The church is not keeping pace with the growth of these cities. For instance, in Buffalo in 1840 there was one Protestant church to each 1,690 persons; in 1905, one to every 3,500 persons. In Brooklyn, in 1840, one Protestant church to every 1,294 persons; in 1905, one to each 3,416 persons. In New York (Manhattan Island), in 1840, one church to every 1,992 persons; in 1905, one to every 6,173 persons.

In the greatest American cities some of the denominations are losing ground. Some do not report as great a membership as twenty years ago. All these conditions demand our entrance into the cities as never before. We must enter the suburban places and fill them with churches. We must establish ourselves in downtown sections which can be reached by the thousands, and these churches must be endowed. We must enter the haunts of darkness and drive out the night, by bringing in Him who said, "I am the light of the world." Tenfold greater work is demanded of us if we but do the part which. considering our strength, is rightly ours.

FOREIGN POPULATIONS.

Nearly one and a third million of foreigners came to the United States last year. About three hundred thousand more entered Canada. All these people need church homes. They need friendly greetings and hearty handshakes, the Bible in their own vernacular, the gospel preached and taught in Sunday-schools in their own tongue.

The American Christian Missionary Society should establish a Bureau of Immigration in New York City, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Her representatives should meet the foreigner as he descends the gang plank, address him in his own tongue, present him with a copy of the Scriptures, if he has none, and tracts which show him the plan of salvation. They should direct him to a place of residence, and see that his spiritual nature is ministered to, and see that he and his companions are gathered into churches, taught the way of the Lord more perfectly, and made into living and loyal disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ, as a part of the process of Americanizing them. A great fund is needed for this field of work. Considering the number of Italians, Poles, Hungarians, Austrians and other nominally Roman Catholic people, and the hundreds of Jews coming to our shores, the Church of God must arise and put forth her strength and Christianize these people before they heathenize and brutalize us.

POLYGLOT AND POLYCHROME PEOPLES.

Other people of foreign speech await the gospel, and we have a too small part in offering it to them. Alaska is a great and growing home Missionary field. We do nothing either for her whites or her Indians. Our work among the Mexicans and other Spanish speaking peoples is pitifully small in view of its vastness and its importance.

Moreover, the American Christian Missionary Society is doing nothing to evangelize the Negro. Here is a field to which we should turn immediately, and in which we should do with all our might what the Lord shows us is waiting to be done.

WESTERN CANADA AS A MISSION FIELD.

Many things combine to make Western Canada as important as any Home Mission field in America. Its vast size, its fabulous mineral wealth, its immense tracts of wheat lands, equal in producing quality to any in the world, its present scant population, its towns and cities in their infancy, but with prospect of amazing growth annually for many years, all enter into the problem.

Hundreds of settlements and districts are without churches or Sunday-schools, and what our brethren did years ago when Oklahoma was thrown open, could be repeated many times in this great country. Great numbers of people from the United States are taking up land with the intention of making Canada their homes. One of our State Secretaries reports that a thousand members of Christian churches in his state moved to Western Canada last year. They are writing to us every week and urging the organization of churches of Christ. The time is ripe. A more favorable opportunity will never come. Vast sums of money and many men are needed at once.

We rejoice to report the most delightful fraternal relationships as existing between our brethren and the Baptists in Western Canada. Their missionary organization is very efficient. They secure lots in practically every new town being opened, and as rapidly as possible organize churches and supply ministers. In many of these towns are groups of our brethren. It appears sinful that these two peoples so nearly identical in doctrine, practice and polity, and whose differences are all but infinitesimal, should organize rival churches in this new country. Both we and they desire co-operation and union.

Conferences to promote this end have been held in a number of places, and delegates from one body have attended and addressed the conventions of the other body. Resolutions favoring co-operation and looking toward union have been passed by both bodies. The leaders of both sides have been praying and working to this end. We hope by the time we celebrate our Centennial to report the practical union of these two peoples in Western Canada. By combining forces we simplify the problems of evangelizing and churching these mighty provinces. We ask the prayers and co-operation of our brethren in behalf of the Union Movement in this great country.

A GLANCE AT THE YEAR'S RECORD.

ARKANSAS.—The work in Arkansas has been reorganized during the past year. E. C. Browning resigned as Corresponding Secretary. J. J. Taylor has succeeded to that important work. We have 315 congregations in Arkansas, and about 30,000 members. Under Bro. Browning's administration during the past year, there have been 450 additions through missionary effort, and six new churches have been organized. For years Bro. Browning had made great personal sacrifices, and with unremitting labor has given his whole time to this most difficult field. His work in Arkansas will ever be a monument to his heroic service. Few men are as well acquainted with their fields of labor as Bro. Browning is with Arkansas. Some new plans have been made for the year, and it is hoped that, with a little more assistance from the American Christian Missionary Society, that Arkansas will show even greater returns in the next year.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.—Northern California has had a most prosperous year. D. A. Russell, Corresponding Secretary, spent a number of weeks in the East canvassing for the special San Francisco offering, and yet the record shows that under the labors of fourteen missionaries, two churches were organized and 443 baptisms reported—308 added otherwise, making a total of 751 additions for the year under the auspices of the State Board. We now have ninety-one good congregations in Northern California, and the work is prospering.

INDIANA.—Indiana sends a substantial report. Seven men were employed during the year, and they report 914 additions for the year, 642 of which were by baptism. Six churches were organized and nine Sunday-schools were organized. T. J. Legg held thirty-three meetings during the year, a remarkable record. The work in Indiana is on a more substantial footing than it has ever been.

INDIAN TERRITORY.—According to the federal census just completed, Indian Territory has a population of 692,901. We have seventy-five well-organized congregations in the State and thirty-five preachers. Sixteen new churches were organized during the year by the State Society; 978 additions were reported, 513 of which were by baptism. S. R. Hawkins has done a really wonderful work in enlisting the churches of this territory in missionary work.

KANSAS.—The Kansas State Board employed seven ministers during the year, who report 345 additions, of which 227 were by baptism; $8,516.39 was raised for State work during the year. We have 398 congregations in Kansas and 248 preachers.

LOUISIANA.—There has been a year of hard and steady work in Louisiana. John A. Stevens served as Corresponding Secretary until July 1st. He was succeeded by Otis Hawkins. We now have twenty-five good churches in the State, though we have but eighteen ministers. The number of accessions through home mission labor were few, owing to the fact that the labors of the missionaries were concentrated upon the effort to build up the churches already established, rather than to inaugurate new work.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The work in North Carolina has been unusually prosperous during the year. Besides encouraging the churches already established and bringing them to stability, two new churches have been organized and 120 persons have been added to the church through missionary labor. A larger number of preachers now occupy the fields in the State than ever before. The progress of the work in the Southern States must be slow and at times tedious, but we are looking forward to better things in the State of North Carolina.

ONTARIO.—The report of John Munro for Ontario shows forty-seven congregations in that territory and forty preachers at work. During the year one new church has been organized and 162 persons added to the church, 110 being by baptism.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—In South Carolina ninety-three additions were reported for the year, fifty-two of which were by baptism; one new church was organized. We now have thirty-seven congregations in that State, though but seventeen preachers. Bro. C. E. Smith has resigned as State Evangelist during the year. The State Board has been in correspondence with J. A. Erwin, with a view to his taking the place, and it is probable that he will accept.

EASTERN WASHINGTON.—The Eastern Washington work has been permanently organized during the year. J. A. Pine is the Corresponding Secretary. The work has not been organized long enough to have submitted any reliable data, but by this time a year from now we expect to have a glowing report from this most fruitful and well-organized field.

ALABAMA.—Alabama reports $1,529.97 for State work last year. Dr. E. C. Anderson is Corresponding Secretary, and he reports 129 baptisms and 287 other additions as a result of the labors of twelve missionaries during the year. Three churches were organized in the State. This has been a prosperous year for Alabama.

NEW YORK.—D. C. Tremaine, Corresponding Secretary, New York, reports 244 additions as a result of the labors of fourteen missionaries at eleven mission points—155 baptisms, 89 otherwise. The work in New York is on a good footing. This has been the most encouraging year for a long time. We have forty-six active congregations in New York State.

PENNSYLVANIA, EAST.—C. A. Brady, of Eastern Pennsylvania, reports 161 baptisms as a result of five missionaries employed at six different points. Forty-seven were added to the churches otherwise. There are fifty-five congregations in Eastern Pennsylvania.

WESTERN CANADA.—We have had three missionaries at work in Western Canada during the past year. They have assisted sixteen mission points. They report 190 additions as a result of their labors. Eighty-eight of these were baptisms and the remainder were scattered disciples gathered together and put to work.

NEBRASKA.—We have a fine report from Nebraska this year. Five hundred and fifty have been added to the churches through missionary labor. Four new churches have been organized; $7,250.00 has been gathered for State work. I. A. Downey, of Hastings, has been elected Superintendent of Bible-school work, and F. Ellsworth Day, of Nelson, as Superintendent of Christian Endeavor. The brethren of Nebraska honored themselves in electing W. A. Baldwin as Corresponding Secretary.

MICHIGAN.—Michigan has taken on new life this year. The personal work, engaging the attention of the State Board, has been the strengthening of the Michigan missionaries. Six missionaries have been employed during the year and fifteen places helped; 105 additions are reported to the churches. F. P. Arthur is in the field again as Corresponding Secretary.

GEORGIA.—Georgia reports 278 additions, notwithstanding the fact that no regular State evangelist is employed in the field. Two new churches were organized and $900.00 raised for State work. The pastors in the stronger churches each hold one or more missionary meetings during the year in this State. The work is in good shape in Georgia and is managed by competent men.

MARYLAND.—The report from Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia shows 259 additions as a result of the labors of seven missionaries.

TEXAS.—J. C. Mason reports 927 baptisms—747 additions by letter and statement in the State of Texas, as a result of forty-seven workers in the field; $17,000.00 was raised for State missionary work; fourteen churches were organized during the year; twelve houses were built; three houses dedicated. This is one of the best reports in this great State of good reports as ever made.

SELF-SUPPORTING STATES.—From the States not supported by the American Christian Missionary Society we quote the following:

In Tennessee there were 1,100 added by missionary labor during the year and three churches organized.

In Ohio there were 538 additions as a result of the missionary labors of thirty-four men; $11,000.00 was raised for State work. Two new churches were organized by the State Board. In Ohio there are 565 congregations and 310 active ministers.

In Southern Kentucky 77 additions are reported as a result of the year's work. In Eastern Kentucky H. W. Elliott, Corresponding Secretary, reports eleven churches organized, and 2,502 additions; 1,339 were by baptism. There are 940 congregations in the State and fifty-six preachers.

Illinois reports 1,464 additions as a result of the labors of sixty-four missionaries. Of this number 917 were baptisms. Five new churches were organized. There are 793 congregations in Illinois and 423 preachers.

Iowa reports 1,673 additions from the labor of thirty-two missionaries—1,126 baptisms. There are 468 congregations and 316 preachers. Five new churches were organized during the year.

Missouri reports 1,800 congregations and a total of 750 baptisms. Twenty new churches were organized during the year, and a total of 4,877 additions reported as a result of the labors of 43 missionaries.

SOUTH IDAHO.—The South Idaho brethren have a very encouraging report. There are twelve congregations in the State and nineteen preachers. It is one of the few States in which the supply of preachers is greater than the number of churches.

One new church was organized during the year and 77 additions to the churches as a result of the labors of three missionaries.

MINNESOTA.—Minnesota reports 165 additions as a result of the labors of four missionaries. Three new churches were organized during the year. There are forty-six churches and twenty-eight preachers in the State.

WASHINGTON.—Washington has forty-seven churches and forty-three preachers. Washington reports 142 additions, better organization and larger plans.

OREGON.—Oregon has had a splendid year, having raised $2,738.00 for purely missionary work within State lines; 165 baptisms are reported and 175 additions otherwise, a total of 340, as a result of the labors of nine missionaries. There are 100 congregations in the State and ninety-six preachers.

WEST VIRGINIA.—West Virginia has had the best year in its history; 195 congregations are reported and not over forty preachers. Four new churches were organized during the year and 183 additions as a result of the labors of three missionaries.

WISCONSIN.—Wisconsin reports 116 additions as a result of the labor of six missionaries. There are thirty-two congregations in the State and twelve preachers.

FLORIDA.—The report of T. A. Cox, Corresponding Secretary for Florida, is one of the most encouraging for years. The collections for State work are fifty per cent. larger than last year, and this is regarded as a conservative estimate. No new churches were organized under the State Board's auspices during the past year, the reason being that the unusually large number projected in previous years necessitated very careful nourishing in order to save the different mission fields. In spite of this, many of the churches hastily organized after a series of meetings have gone down. The aim has been to hold and strengthen what has been done in years past. The State work is better organized than ever before. Two State evangelists are in the field, and another is to begin work November 1st. Notwithstanding the small number of baptisms reported in the past year, this is fifty per cent. better than the record of the previous year. The State Board has provided a good tent that will seat 500 people. The American Christian Missionary Society will continue its support for Florida until the work there is upon the self-supporting basis. The total number of additions reported from missionary labor is 46. Eighteen places were assisted by missionary appropriations.

MISSISSIPPI.—The Mississippi State work is also in better condition than at any time since its organization. W. W. Phares has been indefatigable in building up the agency of the State Missionary Board. In this he has been ably assisted by Will A. Sessions, President of the State Board; W. M. Baker, of Jackson; M. F. Harmon, and others. Two new churches were organized last year and 132 persons were added to the church by missionary effort. Sixty-five of these were by baptism. The State Society raised $2,599.50, and four missionaries were kept employed in the field, holding meetings or assisting at fourteen different places.

MONTANA.—While the American Christian Missionary Society has not been supporting the work at Montana, we are glad to note the report of F. H. Groom, Corresponding Secretary, sent in for publication with the annual statistics in the Year Book, which shows that 176 were added to the churches by missionary labor last year. The policy of the Society during the past year has been to free itself from debt—a debt which had been for several years retarding the work—and to bring the churches throughout the State into intimate touch with the Washington co-operation. F. H. Groom has been wonderfully successful in this work. Montana has been for years a ward of the C. W. B. M., to which organization credit for this good report belongs.

NEW ENGLAND.—Harry Minnick, Corresponding Secretary for New England, deplores the scarcity of men for that most difficult field. In all the New England States we can muster but 2,960 members, although the New England Society has been in existence since 1865. Six hundred and twenty dollars and fifty-eight cents was raised by general work; twenty-three additions are reported to the churches; five missionaries were employed during the year; five different points supported.

NEW YORK.—Possibly the most difficult field for missionary work in America is covered by the State Board of Missions of New York. Here are 8,066,672 people, in the midst of whom we have but 8,689 members on the church roll. We have forty-six active congregations in this State and forty-eight preachers. The churches raised for State work last year $2,995.81. Fourteen missionaries under the direction of the State Board reported a total of 244 additions. A vigorous protest comes from the New York State Board against the curtailing of appropriations to that State, insisting that for next year it can not do with a less appropriation than $2,000 from the American Christian Missionary Society. Five times this amount could be most economically used in this great State every year, and it is only because we have not the money that we have not made the appropriation.

NOVA SCOTIA.—An incomplete report from J. S. Flagler, of Nova Scotia, gives the following statistics concerning the population, number of members in the State, number of congregations, etc., same as last year. Ten preachers reported; $850 raised; sixty-four members added to the churches; one missionary employed; eight places assisted.

OKLAHOMA.—The new State of Oklahoma has not yet perfected the organization between the old Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory. Next year we hope to have the consolidated reports of this large and fruitful field. In Oklahoma proper we have 416 congregations and 212 preachers. Last year 32 new buildings were erected in Oklahoma proper. Sixteen congregations were organized under the State Board; 1,080 were added to the churches, 438 of whom were by baptism. Thirteen missionaries were employed, whole or part time, and 122 places assisted. J. M. Monroe was elected Corresponding Secretary for the western district of the new State, which was formerly Oklahoma Territory; and S. R. Hawkins, Corresponding Secretary for the eastern district, which was formerly Indian Territory.

PENNSYLVANIA, WEST.—Western Pennsylvania reports twenty-five men employed during the past year assisting twenty mission points. Two new churches were organized and 221 additions were added to the churches, of which 146 were by baptism. There are 129 congregations in this district and 71 ministers.

THE DAKOTAS.—A splendid report comes from the North and South Dakotas, where Finley B. Sapp is Corresponding Secretary. Lawrence Wright is the evangelist in the field, under the direction of the American Christian Missionary Society and the Dakota Christian Missionary Society. Finley B. Sapp, the Corresponding Secretary, has traveled 2,500 miles, and has been in active correspondence with all the churches in his field during the year, besides giving his time to regular pastoral duties in the church at Aberdeen, having missed but one service in all the year. G. W. Elliott and Joel Brown have also worked in this field to great advantage.

VIRGINIA.—An encouraging report was received from Virginia; 1,171 members have been added to the churches during the year under missionary auspices. Of these, 728 have been by baptism. Seven churches have been organized and eighteen missionaries employed in the field, seventy-two places being helped. H. C. Combs, the Corresponding Secretary, has given most of his time to field work.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

The Missionary Year just closed is the best in our history. It is likewise our greatest year in Evangelism.

Our evangelists held the greatest number of great meetings in our history. Many churches which formerly did not hold evangelistic meetings held revivals last year—and succeeded; others which occasionally held a meeting of ten days or two weeks planned great campaigns covering six or eight weeks and gathered a rich harvest.

The year has witnessed the rapid development of evangelists among us. Our great evangelists became greater, and even then were hard pressed in results by a throng of rising, younger evangelists and new men in the field of evangelism. For the new recruits we thank God.

The work of our evangelists was more satisfactory than it was a few years ago. Who criticised them last year? Or if any was criticised, it is because his life was an open sore. Let them criticise him until they drive him to his own place. Our evangelists did a mighty work; their praise was in every mouth, and their services were in constant demand. Hundreds of congregations which desired their services were disappointed.

In this greater and better evangelism your committee rejoices, for these are among the results at which we have aimed from the beginning.

The direct work of this committee during the past year has largely been educational and inspirational rather than organizing and directing great evangelistic movements. We have conducted a Department of Evangelism in The American Home Missionary, have contributed many articles to the papers of our brotherhood, as well as some to other religious papers, and have thus kept the subject of "Evangelism" constantly before the people. We have secured a place for the discussion of evangelism in the programs of a majority of our State Conventions. In some State Conventions Evangelism has been the chief theme, and each session has witnessed one or more studies or addresses on direct Evangelistic themes.

The aim has been to make the whole church evangelistic, beginning with the pulpit. We have aimed to fill with the evangelistic spirit all the preaching and the entire ministry of the regular preachers. We have been pointing out how the Society of Christian Endeavor can be made a great evangelizing agency, and in some places our efforts have borne immediate fruit. We have sought to instill the spirit of evangelism into the superintendents and teachers in the Sunday-schools; and that many of our schools are becoming evangelistic is due in some measure to the direct efforts of this committee during the past three years.

A special feature of our educational work is Evangelistic Institutes or Schools of Evangelism. The principal ones which we have conducted during the year were in Memphis, Tenn., Bethany College, Bethany Park, Ind., Chautauqua, N. Y., and Bethany, Nebr. The institute last named was in connection with the Nebraska State Ministerial Institute, and gave a splendid opportunity of reaching some of the choice spirits of the State. This institute bore immediate fruit. A large number of young preachers and others formed preaching bands and went to the streets of Lincoln, Nebr., to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ. The school at Chautauqua, N. Y., would have been better attended if advertised earlier, but the matter was not pushed until rather late because the school appeared to conflict with a "Conference on Prayer and Evangelism" at Hiram College. It is probable that some seven hundred preachers were reached through our schools in the past year. We have been invited to conduct evangelistic institutes in a majority of our colleges during the present year.

We organized a number of State-wide evangelistic campaigns. These were very successful. The report from Bro. B. S. Denny, of Iowa, is the most satisfactory in setting forth the value of these campaigns. In the Iowa campaign, 130 churches reported their meetings to the Corresponding Secretary; 3,219 sermons were preached; 3,246 persons were baptized; 291 were added from the denominations, and 890 from other sources, making a total of 4,427 additions. Brother Denny says that perhaps not more than half the meetings held during this campaign were reported to him, and that the total number of additions was probably not far from 10,000.

Indiana had a great State-wide campaign, in which at least two hundred congregations took part. Full reports have not been furnished us, but the brotherhood has heard of the great Sunday afternoon meetings in Tomlinson Hall, and the great meetings conducted in the Armory by the Third Church of Christ of Indianapolis. An estimate of 15,000 additions as a result of this campaign has been furnished us.

Ohio, Nebraska and Southern California have planned campaigns for the autumn and winter. Quite a number of cities in other States have likewise planned campaigns, largely as a result of the encouragement given them by this committee.

About four hundred brethren who desired to hold one or more meetings wrote to us and were put into correspondence with churches which desired meetings, and some two hundred congregations writing to us for evangelists were put into touch with men who were available for the work. We invite the congregations and the preachers and evangelists available for meetings to make known their wants to us. One of the functions of this committee is to bring together congregation and worker.

More than two hundred congregations have written to us asking for suggestions and advice as to the best men to conduct meetings for them, and as to advertising, evangelistic literature, methods, etc.

We have directly helped about sixty weak churches and missions to have evangelistic meetings, either by securing a volunteer to hold the meeting without cost, or by slightly supplementing the amount which the mission could raise. Among the best of these meetings was the outdoor campaign in Brooklyn, N. Y., conducted by the Second Church of Christ, Jos. Keevil, Minister, and John Waugh, Evangelist.

We have added to our line of tracts during the year, and have printed and circulated not far from a quarter million, most of which have been paid for by the parties ordering them.

All our work has been done this year at small expense to the brotherhood, the total outlay being about $1,000.

We believe that the time has come when we dare organize great campaigns in our cities, and when we can seriously undertake to conduct Union Meetings. We believe that we have men who are fully equal in consecration and ability to the brethren in different denominations who are conducting the work of Union Evangelism. We propose during the present year to look for openings for some of these men, and if possible to introduce them to religious America as Union Evangelists.

Craving the advice, support and prayers of our brethren, while for strength and guidance we look to the Lord Jesus, whose we are and whom we serve, we submit this report.

Signed,

OUR BLESSED DEAD.

The missionaries of the American Christian Missionary Society appear to have been special objects of our Father's care during the year. It is not far amiss to say that not a single hair of their heads has perished. For His gracious concern and providence, we praise Him anew. "His mercy endureth forever."

On the great battlefield of life, not a few gallant soldiers have been stricken and now make their bivouac with the dead. There has fallen that aggressive soldier who brought 40,000 souls captive to our Lord Jesus Christ; and there have gone out from our camps and councils, those whose voices have led us, whose example has inspired us, and whose faith, patience and labors of love constitute a fragrant and golden heritage. Blessed be our dead who now doubly much live in our Lord!

IN CONCLUSION.

We have done our utmost to secure and maintain your hearty and continuous co-operation and to merit your confidence and support. We have administered our trust in the fear of the Lord, and not of men. If mistakes have been made, it is because we are human, and our best is imperfect. But we are conscious of nothing in our administration which, after the searching scrutiny of our brethren, will not stand the test.

We welcome suggestions, advice and criticisms which are grounded on facts. Our books and meetings are ever open to the brethren, for our work is not done in a corner or under cover of darkness. It is openly administered in behalf of all who contribute even the smallest offering to the work. Indeed, we seek to ascertain your wishes, and then carry them into effect.

For those who pass the occasional harsh criticism and unjust censure, or who circulate the false report concerning our work, we have no unkind thought or word, because in most cases they know not what they do. Meantime, the work goes forward. Its friends increase daily, and they manifest their faith and friendship by their gifts and prayers and messages of sympathy.

The growing interest of our brethren in the work of planting and sustaining Churches of Christ in America rejoices our hearts. It means more money, more men, more missions; it means the gospel preached in more strongholds of Satan; it means more followers of Jesus Christ; it means more churches of the New Testament order; it means the more speedy union of all the followers of our Master; it means at length Christian America; it means the earth filled with the knowledge of God's glory as the waters cover the sea, and the kingdom of this world transformed into the kingdom of our God and His anointed.

In order to hasten all these divine ends by human means, we are glad to have been your servants.

THE LABORS OF THE ACTING BOARD.

The Secretaries wish to call attention to the labors of the brethren who administer the work of the American Christian Missionary Society. These brethren receive no compensation whatever for their services. Some of them come about a hundred miles to attend board meetings. One came nearly two hundred miles, consuming a day in coming, a day for the meeting, and a day returning. Four of these presenting these reports can not get to their homes till midnight after attending our meetings.

Some leave their churches, others their legal practice which presses heavily upon them, others vast business interests, and attend monthly or more frequent meetings if necessary, in which they scrutinize carefully reports, appeals, and all other matters pertaining to the welfare of the society. Lawyers, business men and preachers alike give honest consideration to every proposition presented, and exercise more economy in administering your affairs than in their own business.

They deserve our constant gratitude for their sound business sense, prudence, economy, rugged honesty, patience, and their devoted consecration to the large task which you commit annually to their care. The Secretaries take this means of expressing their appreciation of the character and labors of the Acting Board.

G. A. Hoffmann, of St. Louis, National Statistician, then presented his annual report, as follows:

STATISTICAL REPORT

In the years of 1891 and 1892 the United States spent many thousands of dollars to gather the religious statistics of this country. During this year of 1907 similar work has been begun. Our government is well paid for such a work. It is needed by public officials by way of comparison. Is the moral sentiment of the country, so far as the books show, gaining? Does the country wish a more rigid enforcement of laws which affect the moral fiber of men, such as a day of rest, local option, prohibition, divorce and others? A wise legislator would naturally take advantage of any change of sentiment in enacting laws of this character, but his vote would certainly be affected by the fact that there has been a gain or loss in the numbers of communicants in the various religious bodies.

These religious statistics are also needed for general information, especially so by the religious denominations themselves; they raise various and important questions. Consider the one fact, that the four largest religious bodies in America have made a gain of forty-five per cent. since the census of 1890, while the Disciples of Christ gained one hundred. Is it because these denominations are divided up into a number of smaller bodies, or is it because the latter are more united? Is it because the former are burdened with human creeds, and the latter take no other but the divine creed? Is it because the former are mystical and unsatisfactory in presenting the Gospel to sinners, and the latter more rational in preaching the Word and more apostolic in their evangelistic methods? These and many other thoughts must come up in the minds of the great leaders of the churches, and have no little effect in modifying, correcting and adapting their work and preaching to present needs and conditions, from which great good must of necessity come.

In gathering our own statistics, I have been compelled, largely, to depend on our State Secretaries. When the government tried to gather the statistics for this year direct from the churches, they soon found it to be a failure. A messenger from the Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C., visited your secretary and importuned him to take the work off their hands. This, we assure you, is no small undertaking. If we were compelled to send one letter to each church it would take over 11,000. But a large number of churches pay no heed to either a letter from a government official or a member chosen by this body. We are, therefore, compelled to use every ingenuity to secure statistics from some churches.

These difficulties grow out of three things: First—Some of our State Secretaries do not keep accurate lists of churches and post offices. Second—The carelessness and indifference of pastors and church clerks. Third—The growth of a demand for uniformity in matters of opinion in certain quarters. The Bible never changes, but conditions to which its truths are to be applied are constantly changing. Some of our people do not realize this fact; they are without the education that comes through county and district mass-meetings of the churches for the training of ministers, church officers and members so essential for the proper understanding of general duties, relationships and changed conditions. For this reason, if a former church clerk did not make a report, in some quarters, neither will the new one. To make a report to a statistical secretary at once becomes an innovation. There are two or three thousand of these country churches and a few in towns and cities that can never be reached through a national convention, nor even through state conventions, but only through the annual mass-meeting, where a dozen churches come together to discuss the various phases of church work and relationships. Whatever weaknesses may appear in the reports of our national conventions, they are mainly due to the fact that you do not take our conventions in miniature to the very doors of our churches. This is absolutely necessary to maintain the growth, vitality and unity of the churches of Christ.

In our work in gathering statistics for the Department of Commerce and Labor, we now have reports of some seven thousand congregations. This leaves over four thousand yet to hear from. We hope to complete this statistical work by February 1st, and by that time have a report from every church in the brotherhood.

The general reports for the present year, on September 30th, are as follows:

Year	1906	1907
Churches	11,198	11,301
Communicants	1,269,591	1,283,416
Bible Schools	8,952	9,056
Enrolled in Bible Schools	870,622	890,717
Ministers	6,570	6,619

On the face, this shows a gain of only 13,825, while the actual gain is over 28,000. The reason for this is the impossibility of keeping churches in line and new State Secretaries to have them reported. Some State Secretaries draw the line on churches which will not co-operate with them in mission work, especially those churches which declare openly that they are not in sympathy with them on account of missionary organization. Other secretaries will count churches for several years after they have ceased to meet, and then, when the new secretary is elected, he will drop out scores of churches in a single year. This is on the same principle that church boards at times revise their list of members every few years, and drop scores of members who have either moved away, died or become inactive.

Our missionary receipts show an entirely different story. There has been over $400,000 raised and expended in the foreign mission field by the two societies working there; and over $600,000 in the home field by the state societies, the Christian Women's Board of Missions and the American Christian Missionary Societies combined. This is a glorious advance in missionary offerings. About 65 per cent. of our churches are now making offerings through some agency of the congregation for missions. In some of these churches the Sunday-school only contributes. In others, it is only an auxiliary to the Christian Women's Board of Missions. In still others, it is an Independent Mission somewhere, or possibly a local organization. It is gratifying to know that the missionary offerings have increased to a remarkable degree in the last twenty years. Here is our report:

Missionary Receipts.

Foreign Christian Missionary Society	$305,535
Christian Women's Board of Missions	281,638
American Christian Missionary Society	123,597
Board of Church Extension	56,525
State and District Missions	256,833
Miscellaneous Missions	30,000	$1,034,128

Education and Benevolence.

Buildings and Endowments of Schools	$450,000
National Benevolent Association	96,980
Ministerial Relief	9,197
Kentucky Widows' and Orphans' Home	10,000	$566,177

Local Church Work.

Ministerial Support	$4,460,000
Incidental Church Expenses	1,100,000
Church Buildings	760,000
Church and Bible-school Literature	340,000	$6,660,000
		$8,260,305

This table shows the amounts of the missionary offerings for the year to be $1,034,128, or eighty-three cents per member. This is a very creditable showing for a people who have but few large gifts to swell their totals, and considering the fact that many thousands of our people are scattered in the farming districts of the great West, and many of their churches are without regular pastoral care. It should also be remembered that the value of our church property has increased from $12,206,038 to $23,271,649 since 1892, or nearly doubled. Our people have been building houses of worship; and, as these figures show, while our membership has doubled, our church property has met with a like increase. Our motto two years ago was: "A million for missions by the year 1909." But here we have more than a million now, and two years' time to continue this rapid growth.

It may be that some of you are disappointed because the net gains in membership are no larger, and point to our great meetings and the thousands that are brought to Christ in them. In answer to this, I only need to point to the fact that one-fourth of our churches are without preaching, and an additional fourth have only preaching once a month, and both classes are without pastoral care. The losses here are enormous.

But taking our cause as a whole, we have had a great year. The work of the centennial organization is waking up our people, and we may look forward with the assurance and hope that all will be well, and the great cause which this missionary convention represents will triumph and aid our blessed Master in establishing on earth "peace and good will toward men."

G. A. HOFFMANN.

H. A. Denton, Centennial Secretary, spoke on "Our Centennial Aims."

W. T. Stackhouse, Superintendent of Baptist Missions in Western Canada, spoke on the relation of the Baptists and Disciples in Western Canada.

At the conclusion of this address, A. M. Harvuot, of Cincinnati, Ohio, moved that we heartily indorse the sentiments of the address of W. T. Stackhouse, and that we enter most heartily into the proposed co-operation. This motion was carried unanimously.

J. A. L. Romig then made a brief address, pleading for missionaries for the great ripe fields of Northwest Canada.

This was followed by an address on "The Unification of National and State Missions," by Geo. B. Van Arsdall, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The Committee on Place of Next Meeting reported through S. M. Jefferson, as follows:

The Committee on Place recommended as the place for the Convention of 1908, Topeka, Kansas.

Committee. { S. M. JEFFERSON, Chairman; W. F. RICHARDSON, S. T. WILLIS, D. A. RUSSELL.

J. B. Briney, of Louisville, moved that the name Topeka, Kansas, be stricken out of this report, and New Orleans, La., be substituted in its place. The motion was carried.

On motion New Orleans was made the unanimous choice of the Convention.

The recommendations of the General Board were then read by W. J. Wright, as follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE GENERAL BOARD TO THE CONVENTION.

1. The Baptist Conventions and the Conventions of the Churches of Christ in Canada have passed resolutions favoring co-operation and looking toward the union of these two bodies in Western Canada. In several places the union has already been effected. Rejoicing in the splendid progress of this movement, and desiring to further it as rapidly as possible, and likewise considering the great importance of Western Canada as a mission field, we recommend an expenditure of not less than $10,000 in Western Canada within the present Missionary year; and we further recommend that, if necessary, a man be appointed to make a special canvass of individuals in order to raise the money.

2. The present rented offices of our Society in Cincinnati are inadequate. We are liable to be asked to vacate at any time, since the Y. M. C. A. needs the room. If a fire should occur, all the records of this society, covering its entire history, would be wiped out. It is almost impossible to secure suitable offices for our work. Moreover, if secured, the rents are exorbitant. We, therefore, recommend that the Acting Board of Managers be instructed to take the steps necessary to secure, either through purchase or erection, a suitable Mission Building in Cincinnati, Ohio.

3. We recommend that a committee of twenty-five (25) representative brethren be appointed by the President of the American Christian Missionary Society, and that this committee of twenty-five (25) shall consider fully all the questions involved in establishing a Board of Publication, making use of, as they desire, the facilities of the American Christian Missionary Society for conducting their inquiries, and report to the Convention one year from the present time.

4. We recommend the articulation of the American Christian Missionary Society and the Christian Missionary Societies of the following states, territories and districts, as provided for in Article IX. in the revised Constitution of the American Christian Missionary Society:

New England States	Mississippi.	Western Canada.	Oregon.
E. Pennsylvania.	Louisiana.	Wisconsin.	So. California.
South Carolina.	Arkansas.	Minnesota.	Arizona.
Georgia.	Michigan.	The Dakotas.	New Mexico.
Florida.	Wyoming.	Idaho.	Nevada.
Alabama.	Utah.	Washington.

We recommend that these articulations shall be effected at the earliest possible date. Likewise, a similar articulation with the Mission Boards of other states as rapidly as a mutually agreeable plan can be devised.

On motion, the above recommendations of the General Board were adopted seriatim.

The report of the Committee on the Revision of the Constitution, as adopted by the General Board, was presented. (See Minutes of General Board, page 388.)

Moved that the Constitution be adopted article by article.

A substitute motion was made to adopt the Constitution as a whole, except section (c) under Article 9. Adopted.

After announcements, the Convention adjourned, being led in the closing prayer by F. D. Power, of Washington, D. C.

COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Committee on Recommendations presented the following report through George Darsie, of Akron, Ohio:

The Committee on Recommendations reports as follows:

In view of the national importance of Hot Springs, Arkansas, as a health resort, to which hundreds of thousands of people go every year from all parts of this country, and from other lands, including large numbers of young men; and that our small church there, though making great sacrifices, is wholly unable to deal with the great task of establishing a strong church in that city; we recommend that the American Christian Missionary Society and the Board of Church Extension aid our brethren there in erecting a suitable building on the valuable lot, centrally located, which they have already secured and paid for, and in supporting their pastor until the church has become self-sustaining.

In view of the wide-spread interest in Bible-school work and the timely revival in its behalf, which is freighted with such cheer and hope for the future of our cause, it is the sense of this Committee that a National Secretary of Bible-schools be employed by the American Christian Missionary Society, whose duties it will be to organize Mission Schools in needy fields, promote the highest and best things in Bible-school work, and, in a word, as no other can, stimulate this mightiest auxiliary and feeder of the Church. And so we recommend, fully assured, as we are, that his labors will very speedily quicken all our missionary giving, none more than our giving to the evangelization of America.

We still further believe that the presentation of Bible-school work should have longer time in and a more pronounced place upon the programs of our National Conventions, to which end we recommend that this worthy cause have the whole of Saturday evening in convention assembled, and Christian Endeavor be asked to take a place with other affiliated interests in the session assigned to such.

In harmony with the superb address and high ideals therein expressed of the honored President of this Convention, George Hamilton Combs, we recommend as an overshadowing and dominant Centennial Aim, that ever-increasing emphasis be placed upon men—more men, wide-gauge and sun-crowned men—for the ministry of the Word, believing that all our interests will be advanced thereby in a way hitherto unknown, and that the realization of our goal will be attained in no way quite so surely and effectively.

We further recommend that the American Christian Missionary Society and the Church Extension Board continue to assist the stricken churches of San Francisco and vicinity, and that the work of the San Francisco Reconstruction Fund be vigorously prosecuted until the great need of our coast churches be fully met.

(Signed by Committee.)

GEORGE DARSIE, A. B. PHILPUTT,
J. G. SLAYTER, PALMER CLARKSON.
J. J. HALEY,

Motion was made to consider it seriatim. The motion prevailed.

Article 1 was then read, and a motion to refer it to the Board of the American Christian Missionary Society was passed.

Article 2 was then read, and a motion was made to adopt it as read.

A motion was made to amend the motion to adopt so as to refer the question to the Acting Board and the Bible-school Association. Motion as amended, to refer the resolution to the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society and the Bible-school Association, was carried.

On motion, the other resolutions of the report were referred to the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society.

REPORT OF PRAYER-MEETING COMMITTEE.

Uniform Prayer-Meeting Topics—1908.

NORFOLK, VA., October 16, 1907.

To the American Christian Missionary Society, Cincinnati, Ohio:

Your Prayer-Meeting Committee offers the following topics for the Uniform Series for 1908. In arranging them, we have tried to keep in mind the variety needed, in order to avoid monotony of emotion and thought and to meet the different moods of the soul in our trying, modern, complex life. Above all, we have kept in view the cultivation of the devotional, believing that to be the best mission of our mid-week prayer-meetings. The prayer-meeting is not a school, nor a parliament, nor a committee, nor a club, nor a social. It is the hour for a more vivid realization of the Great Presence. It is for prayer.

We suggest that each pastor rearrange the topics to suit his own local needs, but remark also that there is a wonderful inspiration in the thought that thousands of people scattered over the world are praying for the same thing at the same hour. That is indeed a united prayer which binds the world about the feet of God with golden chains. We have also suggested a "Watch Night" topic, since many pastors hold such meetings and find them greatly profitable.

Respectfully submitted,

On motion, the Committee on Union with the Free Baptists was relieved. Its report follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE FREE BAPTISTS.

The Committee on Union with the Free Baptists would report as follows:

Since the full report made to the Convention at Buffalo, your Committee has found no opportunity for doing any direct work. As was shown in the last report, a conference of the Free Baptist Committee with a Committee of the Baptist Church, immediately after our conference, developed the fact that proposals for union with them seemed more attractive and more feasible than with any other. Your Committee would be very far from hindering, or in any way interrupting, such negotiations as may result in the union of these bodies of Baptist brethren Indeed, we would rejoice to see them join wholly in one fellowship, trusting that such a union would be but a prelude and a prophecy of others, even grander, yet to come. A letter from Prof. A. W. Anthony, Chairman of the Free Baptist Committee, will explain the present situation:

"I appreciate, and so do my brethren of the Free Baptist Committee, the fraternal and cordial interviews, and the more intimate acquaintance which we have been permitted to have with our brethren of the Disciples. It is true, as you suggest, that at present the proposed union with the Baptist brethren overshadows every other; and I can not now say what will be the final outcome of the agitation and discussion, since neither body, as a whole, has been able to express itself. Our committee has no power to speak for our people at large, and so we all await with peculiar interest the meeting of our general conference at Cleveland, October 1st."

If it shall be possible to state some conclusion of this conference to our convention, it could hardly change the character of this report.

It should be remembered that the present effort to unite bodies that have too much in common to work apart, was largely inspired by Dr. Geo. H. Ball, who, with a company of his brethren met with a company of our own, as it would seem, providentially, in the Franklin Circle, Church of Christ, in Cleveland, some three years since. Dr. Ball was a good man. His long life was full of unusual power and he left to the world a rich heritage of noble effort. As he drew near life's close he had an ardent desire that "all who felt the truth of Pentecost and accepted without modification the Lordship of Jesus," might be truly one. May his hope, last expressed to us, "that the first union will be with the Baptists and then with the Disciples," be granted early fulfillment. Nothing but actual indifference to the growth of the kingdom can make the people of God indifferent to the cause of Christian union. We can largely measure our zeal for Christ by this. The stolid mass of heathenism beyond the sea, the hard front of worldliness, and the flank assaults of rationalism at home, call for the united effort of all who sincerely believe in Jesus, the Christ. In the deep and earnest desire for a united church, we must hold to the plain and vital truths in which the church first stood, and last must stand. But we can show the spirit, the genuine courtesy, the longing for fellowship, the instant affection for all who sincerely love our Lord and Saviour, which commends, and commends above all else, the plea for unity.

The people of God can be one when, in unselfish loyalty to Christ, they desire so to be. May our lives and our plea help to hasten the day.

E. B. WAKEFIELD, Chairman,
S. H. BARTLETT, Sec. Pro. Tem.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Committee on Christian Endeavor work presented the following report, through Edgar D. Jones, of Bloomington, Illinois:

The Committee on Christian Endeavor work desires to present the following report:

We heartily endorse the centennial aims as set forth in the splendid report made by our National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, and we congratulate Bro. Hill on the good work he has done.

WE RECOMMEND

First. That all our endeavor societies respond to the appeal of the various boards to support definite and specific missionary enterprises in needy fields.

Second. We recommend that the sum of $500.00 be appropriated to defray the expenses of the National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor, the money to be apportioned as follows: $150 from the Foreign Christian Missionary Society; $150 from the American Christian Missionary Society; $150 from the Christian Woman's Board of Missions; and $50 from the Church Extension Board.

Third. We hail with joy the emphasis that is now being placed on the Christian Endeavor Society, as a training school for Christian activity, and urge that in all our societies Bible study courses and mission study classes be organized, and that such work be enthusiastically carried on.

Fourth. We call upon the 6,158 societies in our brotherhood to make earnest effort to realize the following centennial aims that constitute the very cream of Bro. Hill's report:

First. To lead all religious bodies in number of Christian Endeavor Societies by 1909;

Second. To lead all religious bodies in number of members of the societies by 1909;

Third. To stand first in missionary offerings from our societies by 1909.

Committee. { Edgar D. Jones, Finley B. Sapp, L. N. D. Wells, E. B. Bagby, R. M. Hopkins }

On motion the report was adopted.

W. R. Warren made a brief statement concerning the Educational Society, to the effect that though the society had no head at present, the educational work was very much alive.

You ought to have a Home Missionary Rally in your church early in 1908 or sooner. We are filling up the dates now. If you want one, write us at once.

CONVENTION NOTES.

The introduction of the home missionaries is the occasion when the convention itself gets a real glimpse of the home field. Scores expressed regret that the time allotted was so brief. Dozens of protests from fields that could not possibly be heard came to the secretaries. Two hours would be all too little, and would bring the convention into closer touch with the real work of Home Missions than anything else can. We wonder if this was not the thought of the great majority? How would you vote, brother preacher, upon the question of more time to this great moving picture exhibit of America's need?

The glowing feature of the Home Missionary reports was the work done in the field. In no year of our glad working together have we been able to come into such loving and helpful touch with our needful states, and never has the work in the field been so splendidly done. Every man of the missionaries seems to have been upon his mettle, and every little mission congregation seems to have felt the thrill of the Centennial surge as the work of the year rolled on. The reports will bear careful study. Would God we could read into them the heart touches and the tears and the triumphs that the workers in the field alone can know.

A great convention. Great in its spiritual temper; great in its reports; great in its vocal expressions; great in its doing; great in its representative quality; great in its outward look; great in its upward look; great in its addresses; great in its effects upon the local community, the East, and upon ourselves. Let us pray and plan and work, that we may have a greater, for His name's sake, in New Orleans, 1908.

Youth and age seemed to vie for the honor of doing honor. Seldom have we seen a convention where the youngest and the oldest in the service worked more heartily and cheerfully side by side. Age complimented youth, and youth deferred to age most graciously.

It seemed to everybody that J. B. Briney was renewing his youth. His youthful vigor in parliamentary practice, his ready repartee, and his fresh and masterful handling of subjects gave pleasure to his opponents, as well as to those who sided with him.

Movements have already begun in the interests of New Orleans, 1908. There is every reason for a great showing at New Orleans—numerically as well as otherwise. Let us go by states, with state banners; by cities, with city banners, with flags and mottoes and emblazoned records. Let us make this year a whole twelvemonth of glory record. Let us prepare to move upon New Orleans in force and bring her to acknowledge the King of kings, as she has for long the kings of the earth.

The proposed changes in the Calendar go over for a year. This means that they will not go into effect in any case until after "Pittsburg, 1909." The committee was continued, and some changes will probably be made in order that the committee's report may be more nearly expressive of the sentiment of the brotherhood.

The innovation of a convention sermon was appreciatively received. The virile and tenderly potent message of Miner Lee Bates found an answering chord in every heart. It keyed the convention to a spiritual tone and a reverent purpose, from which it did not descend for one brief period.

A new Constitution was adopted. You should read it, as it appears in the minutes. This committee was also continued in order to make the Constitution more perfectly express the will of the people.

Dr. Stackhouse, of Winnipeg, received a well-deserved ovation. His address was timely. His splendid spirit and his electric utterances brought the convention to view the proposition of the merger in the Northwest in a profoundly reverent, as well as in a most appreciative mood. Since leaving our convention Dr. Stackhouse has borne messages of the same import to his own brethren in Ontario, where they were received with practical unanimity and with as great applause. Ere long the greatest step toward practical unity which we have ever taken will be a matter of glorious history.
